Education: Mystic Steeples.

Magister of Sanguinati magic.

Legend: There isn't much historical information to be found on Usabelli, as most of it has mysteriously vanished, as is the case with much of the early history of the Sanguinati. Many, therefore, give Usabelli credit for leading the Sanguinati on their pilgrimage of promise to the land of Severance.

Address: Mystic Steeples, Severance, Hoopenfangia. Usabelli resided in a head vespercestor's suite during her reign.

Date & Place of Death: Circa 1671. Usabelli was accused of smuggling some of the Colossal Crown's jewels, so the lesser vespercestors rallied all of Mystic City together and had her buried alive in molten gold they had extracted from the Crown. Usabelli's gold statue will always be on display in Mystic Steeples as a behavioral reminder to everyone.

Height/Weight/Physical Description: Five and a half foot tall and slim with golden hair, Usabelli was never considered pretty, as the other girls were, so she focused on other areas to compensate for that. Many speculate this left a scar in her psychologically.

Citizenship/Ethnic Origin: Severance, Hoopenfangia. / Caucasian.

Familiar: A horned fox named Bane that helped her sniff out warlocks. Its carcass is now on display in the headquarters of Warlocks' Bane coven.

Social Class: High.

Job-Related Skills: Second head vespercestor from 1641- 1671 *(But many say she's the first head vespercestor, making her the Great Witch.) Usabelli levitated the Colossal Crown from Wrathestan to Mystic Steeples. She had the Crown refurbished on the floor of the coliseum in Ramrod's Arena (which used to be called Mystic Meadows).

Community Status: Many loved her. Usabelli Square was named after her.
